Dear Messrs. Chairman and Vice Chairman:

This is further with respect to your letter of 29 September 1982 and Mr. Casey's letter of 15 October 1982 concerning the development of procedures to deal with oversight activities under Executive Order 12333 (the DCI is presently out of town).

I have been advised that members of our respective staffs have met and additional consultation will be required before a final result can be achieved. I can assure you that the issues raised in your letter have received, and will continue to receive, the careful attention of our senior staff.
